Luke 1:5 - Zechariah was a p_____, and both he and his wife Elizabeth were descendents of A_____ the first high priest.

Luke 1:6 - They were both u_____ in the sight of God.

Luke 1:7 - But they had no c_____, considered a curse then.

Psalm 127:3-4 - "Sons are a h_____ from the Lord; children a r_____ from Him... Blessed is the man whose q_____ is full of them."

We've fallen victim to the mistaken thought that because we are c_____ of God, everything is supposed to be p_____.

Luke 1:13 - The angel said, "Your p_____ has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a s_____."

Luke 1:17 - His son would be forerunner to the M_____.

Luke 1:18 - Zacharias' d_____ with God had left him convinced that God was either u_____ or u_____ to answer his prayer.

Luke 1:20 - Zechariah could not s_____ until the baby was born.

Luke 1:64 - When the baby was born, Zechariah was able to speak and began p_____ God.

My pedigree and my p_____ do not preclude me from p_____.

My p_____ do not permit me to be a p_____.

My p_____ may promote p_____.

My personal p_____ is probably p_____.

We don't know God's p_____ for us or anyone else.
